

Thank you for choosing Holistic Nutrition Services LLC to support you and your family's holistic health needs!

Nicole Wunningham is a certified Holistic Nutrition consultant through the American Fitness Professionals Association. Additionally, Nicole has a Masters in Special Education and is a Child Developmental Specialist. The current best practices in these fields have found that children achieve success in meeting their health goals when the intervention occurs in their natural environment, is embedded in their daily routines, and is led by their primary caregivers.

As the expert on you and your child's holistic health goals, you have an active role in discussing your family's holistic needs and implementing the intervention plan in your daily routines. Holistic Nutrition Services will provide education and training on a wide variety of holistic health interventions and resources to empower you to use wellness strategies daily. This partnership yields the fastest gains toward meeting your family's unique holistic goals!

Sessions may be online using video conferencing from the comfort of your own home. Holistic Nutrition Services LLC uses HIPAA-compliant software to protect you and your child's Protected Health Information.

The cost for one-hour weekly sessions is $90; for bimonthly or consultative sessions is $107. The Intake evaluation is $185 and includes a 60 minute session to review history, develop treatment goals, and score assessments. Payment is conveniently found online at <https://www.paypal.me/PartneringWParents> and is due prior to the start of each session. A $5 Late Payment fee will be incurred for each day past due.

Please email Holistic Nutrition Services LLC with any additional questions.

I look forward to collaborating together soon!
